THE CITY OF HEIDELBERG

The Rhine-Neckar Metropolitan Region is one of the largest economic centres in Germany. And Heidelberg, with its castle, nature, and romantic old town, is one of Germany's most beautiful cities. The picturesque downtown and idyllic location attracts 11 million tourists a year. Additionally, Heidelberg is internationally renowned as a city of learning and science. It boasts one of Europe's oldest universities as well as SRH University Heidelberg, one of the oldest and largest private universities in Germany.

Heidelberg is a vibrant student city, with many special discounts for students to travel, take part in cultural events, and enjoy the nightlife. Hear what our international students think of their experience with us!
